

Pay by cash or bank transfer

Public help

1. Open checkout for an event that allows offline reservations.
2. Choose cash or bank transfer if the organizer has enabled that method.
3. Review the payable amount before confirming. The amount due offline may include the ticket price plus organizer taxes or required event fees.
4. Pay this total directly to the organizer. It may be higher than the ticket price if taxes or organizer fees apply.
5. Your reservation remains pending until the organizer confirms payment.
6. If you do not pay or the hold expires, the reservation can expire and the tickets can be released.
